3. I feel safe when I am at school

115 responses

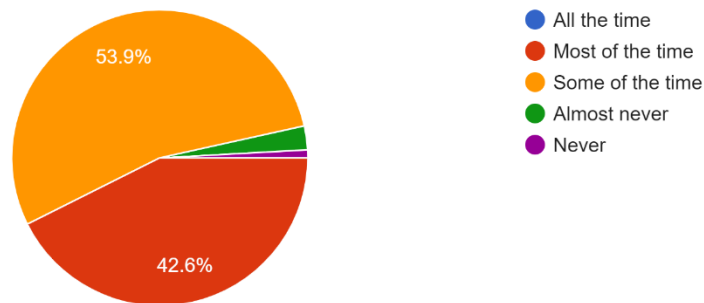

We do fire drills. I feel a little bit safer at home. I only feel comfortable talking to one teacher, Mrs Tokar about my worries. I don't feel safe when the fire alarm goes off. I feel someone is watching me.

I feel safe. You get looked after. We are all in a safe place. I always feel welcome. We have loads of staff to talk to. We do loads of reverse evacuation and evacuations and there's loads of gates. We do fear.

5. Other children behave well during breaks and lunchtimes

115 responses

Tell us more:

sometimes people push me.

People are getting into like physical arguments.

I think other children at break behave most of the time but sometimes other people might play wrestling or don't listen when we're lining up

Because some people throw hay at each other also sometimes people play fight and someone ends up getting hurt.

Our class don't usually have a day where everyone behaves, there's always someone being naughty.

I put most of the time because children fight sometimes

Some people fight each other, and wrestle, which makes me feel a bit worried, but it never happens to me.

people are really silly at lunchtime.

some people in our class can be naughty sometimes well, some people chat while other people listen when supposed to.

It can be better

A bit ruff.

some times we have some rough play

Yes, the other children in all the year groups behave nicely with each other sometimes people are mean but not to me its like when people are naughty and i see it then they get told off

Sometimes people get into arguments and do not like telling the teacher about it.

lots of boys fight

Some people in Year 3 can be a bit cheeky but apart from that everyone is okay.

Some of the year threes and year fours are a bit annoying

At break and lunchtime, no-one has ever hurt my feelings on purpose or be mean to me purposely, but occasionally I might have been snapped at a few times when someone is frustrated or cross, they have always said sorry afterwards.

A few people in my class sometimes can't exactly hold some of their emotions in all the time, which sometimes affects their behaviours.

they sometimes are a bit naughty and disruptive

please keep watch of me

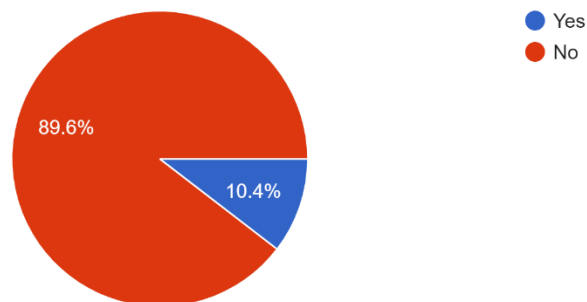

No thank you.

People sometimes talk over the teacher.

Its not everyone its just the footballers because some of the people don't care about others and care about the game and they hurt people for no reason at all

6. Do you feel bullied in school?

115 responses

Tell us about how staff dealt with this:

people don't include me in things like friend groups.

We have no bullies in this school if we did the teachers/staff would help the bully become a better person.

good.

No, I do not feel bullied because i am friends with every boy in the school

I feel fine and if I was getting bullied my friend would stand up for me and help me.

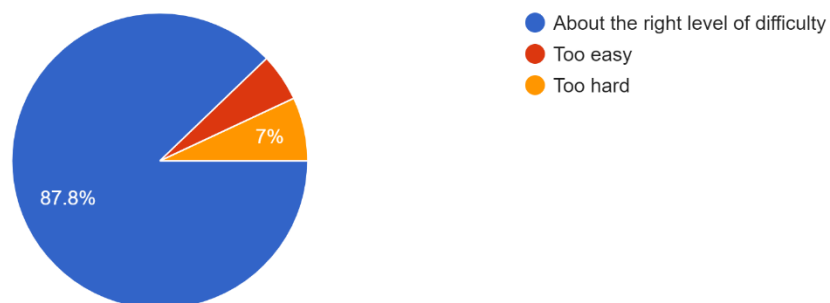

you are always here for me

In the box above I think there should be a sometimes box because I do feel that way, just not all the time, but when that did happen to me for a bit, I did tell my teacher because they weren't just doing it to me.

they don't really care

7. I find the work I'm given in most lessons...

115 responses

sometimes I found the maths sheets in the morning a bit hard.

you find our level of difficulty and then you set it for us some times it is too easy

All the work is challenging but i am able to do it.

It challenges me but at the same time it's the right level!

I feel in a lot of the lessons I could be challenged harder

I have a mixture between all three choices above.

I like the challenge in school.

I like to challenge myself sometimes I'd do the bonus.
